

Custom Designed Recognition Products

Hand-crafted, handsomely designed Zax creations recognize and commemorate your donors in beautiful and distinctive ways...

The following pages depict Zax creations crafted for individual orders. Pricing does not appear because each item is specifically designed. These items are individually priced based on the customers needs.

We encourage you to contact us to discuss your needs. Our design team will help you choose the optimal donor recognition product for your organization. We will then provide you with a free design based on your specifications, as well as a written quotation and color rendering to help you visualize the final product.

Each Zax product is crafted with pride from the finest materials. Your complete satisfaction is our goal. We hope you enjoy getting ideas from the pages to follow.

What our customers say

"The Alcove of Honor - that eleven-foot masterpiece that carries the names of all of our major donors - was a big hit, especially among those whose names appear. Already (as you had forewarned), two donors have come forward to have their names added to the list."
